LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With 3300 men and women attending classes, the university offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social, and historic centers.

Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution, which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia, is on an 85-acre, 36-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 400 full and part-time, with 45 different programs of study offered in which to major. With a student-faculty ratio of 15-1 and an average class size of 21, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside of the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving 8-10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor or diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a summer or a year of study in Spain.

Connelly Library

Among the major buildings on campus are Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building; and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 200 public and private schools in 30 states and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1400 students in 11 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 70% of the students body goes on to graduate study, with more than 1000 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 58 Fulbright grants since 1970, a total exceeded by only two other institutions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 6% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D's (58th of 943 colleges and universities).

BRO. F. PATRICK ELLIS, F.S.C., Ph.D.

PRESIDENT

Brother F. Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., became La Salle University's 26th president on January 1, 1977. After having served as director of development and vice president of the corporation of the university since June, 1969, he succeeded Brother Daniel Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D.

Born in Baltimore in 1928, Brother Ellis, a member of the Brother of the Christian Schools since 1946, joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as an assistant professor of English. He has been at the university since then except for a term as principal of La Salle High School, in Miami, Florida from 1962 to 1964.

Brother Ellis returned to La Salle in 1964 and served as director of the university's Honors Program until 1969 when he was named director of development and vice president of the Corporation. He was awarded a Lindback Foundation Award for distinguished teaching in 1965 and currently holds the rank of Professor of English.

Brother Ellis served at Philadelphia's West Catholic High School for boys from 1951 to 1958 and again from 1959 to 1960 in various capacities including chairman of the English Department and guidance director.

The author of numerous articles in educational publications, Brother Ellis also conducted a "How to Read Great Books" series for the "University of the Air" on Philadelphia's WFIL-TV in 1961 and 1965. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of Philadelphia for two terms.

Brother Ellis, a 1946 graduate of Baltimore's Calvert Hall College High School, received an A.B. degree in English from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., in 1951. He earned a master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

Brother F. Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., Ph.D

A member of the Board of Trustees of Manhattan College, N.Y.; St. Mary's College of California, St. Mary's College, Winona, Minnesota, and St. John's College High School, Washington, D.C., Brother Ellis is the son of Mrs. Harry J. Ellis, who lives in Baltimore.

Brother Ellis is active in many national and local educational and civic organizations. He is past chairman of the Board of Directors of the 220-member Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities and chairman of Philadelphia's Campus Boulevard Corporation, a cooperative organization of institutions located adjacent to La Salle University of Olney Avenue.

He was the chairman for 1986-87 of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities and is on the boards of Greater Philadelphia First Corporation, Philadelphia Urban Affairs Partnership, Independence Hall Association, the Police Athletic League, Fellowship Commission, Professionalism Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, Catholic Charities of Philadelphia, Delaware Valley Citizens' Crime Commission, and Philadelphia Police Commissioner's Civilian Council.

ROBERT MULLEN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his third year as the Director of Athletics at La Salle University is Robert Mullen. Being named to this post on July 28, 1986 becoming La Salle University's fourth Director of Athletics.

Mullen is the top administrator of the University's 22-sport intercollegiate program. Under Mullen's direction, La Salle's athletic teams have won two of its five consecutive Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's all-sports trophies.

During Mullen's first two years, La Salle has shown a rebirth in national basketball prominence finishing as a finalist in the 1987 NIT and a trip to the 1988 NCAA Basketball Tournament. Additionally, La Salle's women's basketball team secured a bid to the 1988 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, making the school one of only eight institutions to participate in both Championships.

La Salle's men's teams have broken the single game record for gate receipts three times in Philadelphia's historic Palestra over the past two years. The Explorers also received national television exposure five times last season.

Mullen is currently President of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and was Chairman of the Big Five in 1988. A member of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA), Mullen has been an active administrator. Mullen was the President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association and was a Division II College Representative to the Executive Committee of NACDA. At the international level, he has been a voting delegate to the U.S. Olympic Committee-U.S. Sports Council; in 1986, Mullen served as an administrator at the Goodwill Games in Moscow; he has conducted clinics at Sports Camps in Scandinavia; and visited 10 foreign countries with his collegiate basketball teams at Loras and Southern Colorado.

Bob Mullen

Prior to coming to La Salle, Mullen had been a successful administrator and coach at the University of Southern Colorado and at Loras College.

In 1981, Mullen was named the Director of Athletics at Southern Colorado in Pueblo, CO. While at Southern Colorado, Mullen had several teams qualify for post-season play including the men's basketball program's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Championships; promoted an NAIA first round football playoff game which set a national attendance record and initiated a varsity wrestling program which ranked second in the NAIA just three years from its inception. He also served as the interim Director of Alumni Affairs.

In 1974, Mullen was selected as the Director of Athletics and Head Coach of basketball and golf at Loras College in Dubuque, IA. Both sports reached the NAIA finals under his leadership. For his coaching efforts, Mullen received NAIA District Coach of the Year honors in both basketball and golf. Mullen established a Division III football program at Loras and helped in the planning and development of both a civic arena and campus intramural center. He also initiated a women's intercollegiate athletic program at a previously all-male school.

Prior to entering the college ranks, he started his coaching career in the Chicago Catholic League in 1962. From 1965-1974, Mullen was Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach at Galena (IL) High School. His basketball team won seven straight conference championships while posting an overall record of 189-59.

He was also the Head Coach of football (18-6 record), golf (three conference championships) cross country and basketball.

Mullen, 49, is a double graduate of Northern Illinois University. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in History in 1962 and a Master of Science degree in Guidance and Counseling in 1967.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY HEAD BASKETBALL COACH BILL "SPEEDY" MORRIS

Bill "Speedy" Morris begins his third season as head coach for the Explorers. Success has been the rule since Morris has come to La Salle. Morris took his first Explorers team to a 20-13 record finishing as finalists in the 1987 NIT. His 1987-88 squad not only compiled a better record at 24-10, but they went one step beyond with a 14-0 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference record and sweeping through the league's post season tournament to the automatic bid for the NCAA Tournament.

In the 1988 NCAA Tournament, La Salle travelled to Notre Dame, IN, to face Kansas State in first round action. The Wildcats beat the Explorers 66-53, closing one of the school's most exciting seasons to date.

Because of La Salle's spectacular regular season and post-season play in the conference tournament, Morris was named 1988 MAAC Coach-of-the-Year. Along with the impressive season record, Morris' team also captured first place in the Connecticut Bank & Trust Invitational in Hartford, CT.

Morris first gained recognition as a basketball coach at Roman Catholic High School in Philadelphia. In 14 seasons at Roman, Morris tallied 347 wins against only 82 losses. Roman won one Philadelphia City Championship; six titles in the Philadelphia Catholic League; two National Catholic Tournament championships and had four 30-win seasons.

Morris also spent two years as head coach at The William Penn Charter School. His overall record at Penn Charter was 40-14 and Morris' 1984 Penn Charter squad won the Philadelphia Interacademic League championship for the school's first title in 12 seasons.

Morris came to La Salle for the 1984-85 season when he replaced Kevin Gallagher as head coach of the Lady Explorer's program. Morris was the first-ever, full-time appointment to the position. He saw much the same success as he coached La Salle's women to 22 and 21 victories in 1985 and 1986, respectively. His 1986 women's team won the MAAC title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. In 1986, Morris was appointed to head up the men's program and in doing so, became the first coach in the nation to make such a switch.

A native of Philadelphia, Morris and his wife Mimi reside in Roxborough with their four children: Keith will be attending La Salle in the fall and will play on his father's squad; Brian is a senior at Archbishop Carroll High School; Margaret Mary is a junior at John Hallahan Catholic High School; and Christopher, who is ten, attends St. John the Baptist School.

COACHING STAFF

JOE MIHALICH

An Explorer through to the core, Joe Mihalich, has played and coached at La Salle University. The Philadelphia native is beginning his eighth season as a member of the coaching staff. Mihalich was the 1978 NCAA squad's Co-Captain and "Most-Dedicated-Player." He was a four time letterwinner under Coach Paul Westhead. Following his senior year, Mihalich apprenticed under the legendary high school coach Morgan Wooten at DeMatha High School in Washington, DC. As the head coach of Dematha's junior varsity team, Mihalich posted a three year record of 39-5. The 32-year old Mihalich is pursuing a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Temple University. Mihalich also teaches part-time in La Salle's Mathematics department in addition to his coaching and recruiting assignments. Mihalich and his wife, Mary, and son Joseph were joined by twin boys, Matthew and Anthony, this summer. The Mihalich's live in Philadelphia.

RANDY MONROE

The newest and youngest member of the La Salle basketball staff is Randy Monroe. Monroe comes to La Salle following two seasons as an assistant coach at Cheyney University. He helped the Wolves to a berth in the NCAA Division II final in the 1986 season. Monore graduated from Cheyney in 1987 with a Bachelor's degree in Recreational Administration. The 26-year old has been active in many area and regional basketball camps over the past few years. Monroe played his high school basketball at Roman Catholic High School under current Explorers coach Speedy Morris. He was a first team all-Philadelphia city choice and was the Catholic League MVP as well as a member of the First team all-Catholic league squad as a senior. Monroe is single and lives in Philadelphia.

SAM RINES

Rines is in his ninth season assisting the Explorers coaching staff as the part-time assistant. An assistant coach at Abington High School in Montgomery County prior to joining the La Salle staff, Rines has been the director and supervisor of the Abington Township Recreational Basketball Program since 1975. The 44-year old Rines graduated, like Randy Monroe, graduated from Cheyney State in 1968. Rines holds a Master's degree from nearby Beaver College. Rines and his wife, Fannie Elizabeth, live in North Hills, PA, with their three children, Donna, a senior at La Salle, Sam, a sophomore on the Explorers basketball squad, and Charlezetta.

RICH PRENDERGAST

An enthusiastic supporter of La Salle basketball, Prendergast enters his fifth season as a volunteer coach to Speedy Morris' team. Prendergast has coached in the Philadelphia CYO and in the Catholic League high school system. Before joining the La Salle coaching staff, Prendergast directed the Women's team at Hallahan High School to two playoff berths in four seasons. In 1986, Prendergast was honored with the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to the La Salle women's intercollegiate athletic programs. Prendergast is a 1960 graduate of La Salle University. Prendergast lives in Yardley, PA.

THE EXPLORERS

22 LIONEL SIMMONS

6-6 • 210 • Junior Forward
South Philadelphia High School
Philadelphia, PA

The list of accolades continues to grow for Lionel Simmons. In just two years, Simmons has been the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference's Rookie of the Year (1987) and the MAAC and Big 5's Player of the Year (1988). He became La Salle's single season scoring leader scorer with 792 points last year, Simmons eclipsed the legendary Tom Gola's school record. His 670 points in 1987 set a freshman record. Simmons was named to several All-America teams including The Sports News, Basketball Times (2nd team), UPI (3rd team) and AP (honorable mention). He was invited to the 1988 Olympic Trials. A complete player, Simmons also holds single season records for field goals made (290), steals (71), and blocked shots (77). A 37-point effort at North Carolina set a single game scoring record for the Dean Smith Center. He has scored in double figures in 51 straight games and has tallied in double digits in 64 of 67 contests. A five-time selection as the MAAC Player of the Week as a sophomore, Simmons was also honored for the week of Feb. 29, 1988 by Sports Illustrated for back-to-back 32-point efforts against Holy Cross and Manhattan. He was the MVP of the Connecticut Bank & Trust Tournament and was named to all-tournament teams in the Jostens Philadelphia Classic, Chaminade Christmas Classic and the MAAC Tournament. Currently ninth on La Salle's all-time scoring list with 1,462 points with an average season, Simmons will undoubtedly become the fourth Explorer to score over 2,000 points. Simmons should move into third place on the scoring list behind Michael Brooks (2,628) and Tom Gola (2,461) at the close of the 1989 season. Simmons was co-captain of the USA silver-medal team in the 1987 World Junior Championships and led the team in scoring, rebounding and assists. He was also named to the 1987 NIT All-Star Team. Simmons has led the Explorers the past two seasons in scoring, rebounding, field goals and free throws made, steals, and minutes played. He has been named co-captain for the 1989 season along with senior Craig Conlin. As a freshman, Simmons was selected MAAC Rookie of the Week 10 times, leading the conference in rebounding. He was coached at Southern by Mitch Schneider.

CRAIG CONLIN

6-6 • 230 • Senior Center
La Salle High School
Glenside, PA

Conlin is a durable player who has started 74 consecutive games. Conlin shot a remarkable 64.6 percent from the field in his junior season converting 144 of 223 attempts. His made field goals were just shy of the NCAA statistical requirements, otherwise he would have been among the national leaders. He has led the team in field goal percentage in both his sophomore and junior seasons. Conlin should set a new career field goal percentage record, he has shot at a 58.4 percent clip over the past three seasons. He scored in double figures in 15 games in 1988. Conlin opened the season with 20 points and 10 rebounds against Texas-San Antonio. Conlin will be counted on to provide leadership as he is the only senior on the 1989 squad. He was named co-captain along with Lionel Simmons. Conlin was the team's second leading rebounder pulling down 165 caroms. He had six or more rebounds in 10 games including a career high 12 boards versus Princeton. As a high school senior, Conlin was the Philadelphia Catholic Player of the Year. Larry Koretz vs. Illinois St. during 1987 NIT.

La Salle in the 1988 NCAA Tournament

The goal had been set and reached. A berth in the field of 64 in the 1988 NCAA Tournament. The basketball season was a success for the La Salle Explorers.

Yet, there was still room for more glory. More recognition than an undefeated Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular season. More honors for star forward Lionel Simmons. More accolades for sharp shooter Tim Legler and more assists for Rich Tarr, the seniors who led La Salle to Southbend, IN, for a first round game with Kansas State University.

It had been five years since La Salle had played in the NCAA Tournament but basketball fever was running high on the Philadelphia campus. As runner-up in the 1987 NIT, La Salle's basketball resurgence had come of age with the berth in 1988 NCAA field.

The Wildcats were stout with Mitch Richmond leading the Big Eight school. He scored a game high 30 points as Kansas State downed La Salle, 66-53.

Simmons paced the Explorers with a double double of 20 points and 10 rebounds.

"It was a great experience to make the field and play in the NCAA Tournament," La Salle Head Basketball Coach Speedy Morris said. "Our experience in the Tournament will be our motivation for 1988-89. We will be back."

Kansas State moved on in to the final eight before bowing out of the Tournament.

As the curtain closed on one of La Salle's most exciting seasons, optimism rained on the Explorers' expectations for the future.

★ La Salle Routs Navy to Win NCAA Eastern Final ★ La Salle Beats Penn State, Enters NCAA Title Game ★

March 8—Buffalo (NY) Memorial Auditorium (5655)
LA SALLE 76—Fordham 74 (ot)

Fran O'Malley, on a pass from Tom Gola, layed in the winning points as the Explorers opened their trek to the NCAA title with an overtime win over Fordham. Three weeks earlier, La Salle had beaten the Rams 61-56, at the Philadelphia Arena. Gola finished with 26 points and 16 rebounds in the NCAA win, while O'Malley scored 13.

March 12—The Palestra (8500)
LA SALLE 88—North Carolina State 81

Gola and Charlie Singley each scored 26 points as the Explorers advanced to the Eastern Regional final with a win over the Atlantic Coast champion Wolfpack. Gola also had 26 rebounds. Again, the NCAA win was a repeat of an earlier La Salle win, 83-79, at North Carolina State.

March 13—The Palestra (7614)
LA SALLE 64—Navy 48

Gola again led the way with 22 points and 24 rebounds. A 22-8 scoring margin in the third period gave the Explorers a 43-29 lead going into the last 10 minutes. Singley had 16 points in the championship victory.

March 19—Kansas City (MO) Municipal Auditorium (10,500)
LA SALLE 69—Penn State 54

Frank Blatcher, who had scored 25 points in the previous three games, matched Gola's total of 19 points in the NCAA semifinal victory over the Nittany Lions. Gola also had 17 rebounds as La Salle led from the opening tap. Coach Ken Loeffler was almost apologetic after the game, explaining, "We weren't interesting but what can you do against a zone (defense)."

March 20—Kansas City (10,500)
LA SALLE 92—Bradley 76

Trailing 43-42 at halftime, La Salle exploded for 30 points in the third period to open a 15-point lead and coast to the NCAA title. Gola scored 9 points, Blatcher 8 in the period. Blatcher, a 24-year-old sophomore Navy veteran, and Singley, another sophomore, each scored 23 points in the championship game, while Gola again had as many points as rebounds (19). In the five NCAA Tournament games, Gola averaged 22.8 points and 20.4 rebounds; Singley averaged 17.2 points in the tournament, Blatcher 13.4, O'Malley 10.2, and Frank O'Hara, the only senior on the roster, 6.8.
